Participants: Each partner organization will send 5 female participants. One group leader with no age limit, and 4 young women aged between 18 and 30. In total 30 participants. Priority will be given to those without experience of international cooperation and with fewer socio-economical opportunities, but with basic English language skills. One of the selection criteria will be the participants' presence on the preparation classes. It is important that each group has one participant who is a professional visual artist.

Result: Visual solutions for 6 murals which will be painted in partner local communities.

The preparation courses

Women's Communication for Solidarity - WomCom

Art of the murals

Methodology: lectures, presentations, debates.

Content: Introduction into contemporary visual arts, the mural painting in different historical contexts, the politically engaged mural, the impact of specific space on visual solution for mural, the different techniques for mural painting.

Duration: 10 hours in total (max.) divided into a few sessions.

Result: The decision of the group will be made about the place where the mural will be painted. Each mural must cover a total of 20m<sup>2</sup>, but it is not necessary to have one painting on one wall, it could be a triptych painted on few walls.

Each participant will choose one existing mural to present and explain as a good practice during the session within Youth Exchange.

Intercultural learning

Methodology: lectures, games, debates, research, presentations.

Content: Intercultural learning is about dealing with the forming and alteration of personal identity. It is about diverse life contexts and cultural relativism. Participants will discuss about different levels of their own identity and learn about history and culture of other countries and cities involved in the project. Focus will be on gender identity and gender terminology.

Duration: 10 hours in total (max.) divided into a few sessions.

Result: Participants will be more aware of their identity and the cultural and historical background of participants from other partner organizations.

The working language for both courses will be English as a part of the language preparation of the participants. Preparatory courses will be realized in April and May.
