

Youth Exchange "Color Blind"

The exchange will bring together 30 young people from 18-25 years old from six programme countries (Croatia, Italy, Germany, Spain, Serbia and Poland) with one leader from each partner country with no age limit.

From organizer country coordinator of the project will be also present on activity. The project activities will take place in Ludbreg, Croatia and will last for 8 days (including travel days). Half of the participants will be young people with fewer opportunities. The methodology of this project will be focused on non-formal education principles, which include discussions, team building activities, debates, team work, workshops, reflection groups, energizers and ice-breakers, games, intercultural dialogues and country presentations, trips and treasure-hunts.

The main theme of this youth exchange is promotion of intercultural and ethnic diversity awareness among youth. It will impact young people so they will learn about the most crucial experience of being bullied by the factor of cultural or ethnical difference of the individuals in local societies, discuss the subject of intercultural diversity, explore challenging behaviors based on cultural differences in Europeancountries.

The participants will discover how they may influence on certain matters and fight the ethnic and cultural discrimination in their local communities by remaining in peace with each and every individual of the group. They will also learn about non-formal learning, values of European Union and how to transfer knowledge to others. During the project young participants will learn how to make the tool for social inclusion and they will use that tool in future work. The accommodation and meals will be covered by the European Commission. Participants will stay in 3-4 bed rooms in mixed international groups. The travel costs will be fully reimbursed after the project, there's no participation fee.
